MilfordMD Cosmetic Dermatology Surgery & Laser Center has unveiled MilfordMD.com, its newly designed mobile-friendly website, which gives visitors the opportunity to consult with practice physicians virtually, book consults online, watch video testimonials, have live chats and more. "We've been building the new MilfordMD.com web experience for about a year," says cosmetic surgeon Dr. Richard Buckley, medical director at MilfordMD Cosmetic Dermatology Surgery & Laser Center, in Milford, Penn. "Websites are no longer stagnant practice brochures. Today's websites are more like online destinations. Visitors to the MilfordMD.com website can interact in real time, get updated information and navigate easily to get whatever they need in seconds."

The MilfordMD website offers an easily accessible online library describing today's cosmetic options. "Online visitors can use our navigation bars to find the procedure they want and learn all about it," Dr. Buckley says. "For example, a person interested in Botox injections can access information, including recent blogs on Botox; see how it's done by viewing an in-office video demonstration; even, fill out a form for a confidential virtual consultation, so they can find out if they're candidates and what it might cost if they have the procedure. look at a gallery of before and after photos, as well as read patient testimonials from people who have had Botox.”

The website makes it easy for visitors to learn more about the doctors and staff and contact MilfordMD by email or phone. Patients can log into their private accounts and patient portal. They can even view their consults, including what was discussed and their possible transformations, made possible with images from MilfordMD’s newly added Vectra XT 3D imaging and Visia Complexion Analysis System.

MilfordMD has added an online pricing feature, where visitors can fill in a limited amount of information and the practice will email them an estimate on what their desired procedure will cost, according to Dr. Buckley. “We offer information on financing options on the website, and up-to-date information on practice specials that can save patients hundreds of dollars on their favorite cosmetic procedures,” he says.

New patients can download patient information forms, to save time during their office visits. And out-of-town patients can get a glimpse of accommodation and dining options, while in Pennsylvania for their procedures at MilfordMD.

For those who want to shop for skincare products or cosmetic services online, for themselves or as gifts for the holidays, MilfordMD.com features an online shopping cart. “Our MediSpa services, including HydraFacial MD, peels and body waxing, are gift favorites. Now, it’s easy for people to go online and purchase a product or cosmetic procedure without leaving home,” Dr. Buckley says.

MilfordMD.com continues to offer a live chat option, where people can ask questions about procedures and more on-the-spot. “We made sure that with all the bells and whistles, we paid attention to the basic tenants of a good website. MilfordMD.com is easy to navigate, simple in design and is perfect for mobile access,” Dr. Buckley says. “More and more people are checking us out with their smart phones. The website loads easily and looks great on any smart phone or tablet. MilfordMD is an extension of our practice. It’s the first impression many people get of who we are and what we do. We invite people to take a look and tell us what they think.”
